

For the following:

- Write the syntax (that is: whether a word is a subject, indirect obj., predicate, or direct object), case, and number above each italicized word.
- If a conjunction (ET or SED) is italicized, label it as such.
- For each prepositional phrase, label the preposition and indicate the case and number of the noun that follows.
- Write each italicized element in Latin.

	Subj. Nom. Sg.	prep. + abl. Sg.	are	Pred. Nom. Sg.
Example:	The boys	in the field		farmers.
	PUERĪ	IN AGRŌ		AGRICOLAE

1. The women were walking without the sailors in the homeland.

2. O Son, show the money of the people to the girls.

3. The poets sang songs to the farmer about the roses of the girl.

4. I see both a sailor and a farmer in the field.
