

A. Write in Latin.

1. of our king

2. for your wives

3. under the bodies

4. about excellence

5. of names

6. for love

7. song (d.o.)

8. for the human being

9. by custom

10. concerning peace

11. of my maidens

12. in the state

13. of the work

14. by names

15. for the kings

16. wife (addressed directly)

B. Translate these phrases into English. Give all possibilities.

1. propter labōrem

2. in pāce

3. nova nomina

4. dē mōribus

5. in tuā cīvitāte
6. tempus pulchrum
7. meō rēgī
8. magne homō
9. propter amōrem
10. dē virtūtibus
11. sine rēge
12. post carmina
13. sub labōre
14. multa nomina
15. uxōribus bonīs

C. On a separate sheet decline fully (singular and plural, all cases) these noun-adjective phrases.

1. our king
2. wicked maiden
3. strange poem
4. good states

D. Give the full vocabulary entry for the following nouns.

Example: human being homō, hominis, m.

1. opportunity
2. toil
3. love

4. peace

5. custom

6. state

7. wife

8. song

9. name

10. body

11. maiden

12. excellence

13. king